RECOGNIZING BIG BROTHERS BIG SISTERS OF NORTHEAST INDIANA

● Mr. BAYH. Mr. President, today I wish to pay tribute to the remarkable achievement of Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Indiana, which was named "National 2006 Agency of the Year" by Big Brothers Big Sisters of America this summer.

This honor was achieved through the hard work and persistence of the entire staff, board of directors, Bigs, Littles, donors and other stakeholders. Headquartered in Fort Wayne, IN, the agency was established in August 1972 and continues to assist young adolescents who lack guidance and support by creating positive and enduring relationships between youth and adults and by supporting those relationships with appropriate screening, training and supervision. Presently, more than 1,100 area youth participate in Big Brothers Big Sisters programs in 10 Indiana counties and 2 Michigan counties.

Several factors contributed to the agency receiving this year's award. During the past 5 years, it has grown exponentially in many areas, from expanding the region it helps to increasing the length of the matches it provides, which grew by almost 120 percent between 2001 and 2005. The number of participating adult volunteers has increased by 90 percent since 2003, and the time taken to enroll those volunteers has been decreased by 60 days over the course of last 2 years, allowing more Bigs to be matched with more Littles, thereby fulfilling the Big Brothers Big Sisters mission of helping children to reach their potential through professionally supported one-to-one relationships with measurable impact.

In addition to being recognized as the National 2006 Agency of the Year, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Indiana was also a finalist in the categories of Board of the Year and Chief Executive Officer of the Year—the only agency to achieve this distinction. It should also be noted that all of these nominations were in the "Large" category, yet the Fort Wayne agency was considered mid-sized only a few years ago. Since that time, the organization's growth in programs and quality have bolstered it to the top among BBBS agencies in large metropolitan markets.

I have supported Federal funding for agency programs like the Amachi program, which pairs faith-based mentors in one-to-one matches with children of incarcerated parents, as well as its Lunch Buddies program, which pairs elementary school students with caring adult mentors for weekly lunch visits at the children's schools.

Big Brothers Big Sisters of Northeast Indiana makes a visible impact in the lives of Hoosier youths, and it is deserving of the recognition that it has received. I offer my sincere congratulations today and look forward to continuing to support to this exemplary organization in the future.●
